➤ Who we are.

Thrivner Inc. is a company dedicated to providing smart ideas, solutions, strategies, and software in order to create a world in which everyone thrives.

➤ What we do.

At Thrivner, we leverage our employees' combined years of science, technology, and research experience serving government, non-profits, academia, and industry to help our customers achieve the outcomes they want to see in the world.

➤ How we do it.

We think. We are always thinking. Informed by research, experience, and creativity, our answers are always tailored to the questions and outcomes.

We think ahead. We think strategically and we incorporate foresight. We also anticipate needs and fulfill them proactively.

We convene. We moderate, facilitate, and mediate conversations of all sizes and scopes, in reality and virtually.

We innovate. We constantly seek efficient and effective approaches to our work to maximize the value we produce for our clients. We design and implement approaches, processes, and mobile- and web-based applications that are modular, adaptable, and useful over time.

We evaluate. We consistently reconsider the initial questions and outcomes to identify and analyze the gaps.

We communicate. We provide consistent, reliable, predictable, effective, thoughtful, compassionate, and courteous communication.

We serve. We are privileged and honored to serve our clients.

➤ Why we are different.

We understand the power of relationships. We view our customers as complete individuals with both professional and personal interests and aspirations. We genuinely care about both aspects of our customers' lives; we believe that a holistic understanding enhances our ability to help create a world in which customers – and their organizations – thrive.
